

I am very disturbed by idea of getting rid of caps on media ownership of television stations. Free access to information is critical to a well functioning democracy, and this move by the FCC to allow virtually monopolies of media outlets.